This client may have limited English proficiency. If your facility receives any state or federal money (Hill Burton funds, Medicaid, Medicare, or CHIP) you are required by law to locate an interpreter or bilingual staff member to communicate with the client. This applies to medical encounters beginning with the first point of contact to the last. There are Medicaid funded interpreters available. For more information, visit www.health.state.ut.us or call (800) 662-9651. Interpreting/translating services are also found in the yellow pages under "Translators & Interpreters."

Please arrange for an interpreter who speaks Karenni.

Health Care Provider: If you need more information or have questions, please contact the Office for Civil Rights at 1-800-368-1019.

As a professional courtesy, please expedite any appointment at which an interpreter is present. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Adapted by: Utah Department of Health, TB Control/Refugee Health Program
Civil Rights Act) of 1964 was signed into law on March 7, 1964, and became effective on July 2, 1964. The act prohibits discrimination based on race, color, religion, or national origin in the enjoyment of any of the rights and privileges under Federal law. It also provides for the establishment of the Civil Rights Commission and the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice to enforce the act.

The Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights (OCR) was established in 1965 to ensure that all schools, both public and private, that receive Federal funds are free from discrimination based on race, color, national origin, religion, or sex.

OCR’s mission is to ensure that every student has access to a safe, respectful, and inclusive learning environment. OCR investigates complaints of discrimination and provides technical assistance to schools and colleges to ensure compliance with Federal civil rights laws.

To file a complaint with OCR, you can call 1-800-368-1019 or visit the OCR website at www.ed.gov/ocr. You can also file a complaint in writing by sending it to OCR at 400 Maryland Avenue, N.W., Room 9010, Washington, D.C. 20202.